

The Vowel Song, Part 1

This is sung to the tune of “Bingo.” But we will skip the first two lines of the original song (“There was a farmer had a dog / And Bingo was his name-o”) and go straight to the fun part!

Put out the vowel sound cards, and whenever you sing the name of one of the letters, point to its card or have the child point to it.

A - E - I - O - U,

A - E - I - O - U,

A - E - I - O - U,

Are the names of five smart letters!

A - E - I - O - U,

A - E - I - O - U,

A - E - I - O - U,

Why are vowels smart letters?

'Cause vowels can say their NAME and a sound.

'Cause vowels can say their name AND a sound.

'Cause vowels can say their name and a SOUND.

That's why they're smart letters!

A - E - I - O - U,

A - E - I - O - U,

A - E - I - O - U,

Are the NAMES of five smart letters!
