

B10: I Spy...A Rhyme

Lesson Objective: Children will be able to find something in the classroom that rhymes with the provided clue.

Activity

Video: How to play I Spy...A Rhyme

Explain to your child that there are rhyming things all around you. Then say that you will give her a clue, and she needs to find the object in the room that rhymes with the clue word. The clue should be a one-syllable word.

Adult: I spy, with my little eye...something that rhymes with bear.

Child: [looking around] ...I don't know.

Adult: Well, what are you sitting on?

Child: A chair?

Adult: Yes, a chair. Does that rhyme with bear?

Say the two words together.

Child: Bear...chair.

Adult: Do they rhyme?

Child: Yes!

Adult: Yes, chair rhymes with bear.

Small Groups (2-5 children)

Additional Materials:

optional: magnifying glass, paper towel tube, or binoculars

Adaptation: Read the main activity, watch the video, and follow the instructions above, with the following changes:

Use any of the materials above to encourage the children to hunt for the item that rhymes with the clue given. If those items are not available, make pretend binoculars as shown in the video.
